INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE GAMES TOMORROW

Two Industrial League games will be played tomorrow afternoon at Newfield Park, the opener, which no doubt will prove a scorcher, being between the Yosts, at present the league leaders, and the Singer teams. Yosts beat the Singers by a small score on their former encounter. It is believed that since the American & British team found the angora of the Typewriters that they will fall victims to a number of the other clubs.

Manager Ed Lynch will trot out Frank White, his premier pitcher, with George Wilson as his receiving clerk. Young Wells, the youthful phenom, will essay for the Singers, being held up by Irvy Laubscher. The second game will also produce two bottle clubs, both out to take away the victories, the Warner Brothers and the Cartridge shop clubs. It's win or die for either team.

Warner battery will be Liggins or Boese, pitchers, with "Bud" White, catching. For the Fulminate mixers Thompson and Ennis will twirl and Morant catch.

Out on Crane Field, on South and Iranian avenues, the American & British team, fresh from its brilliant victory over the Yosts last Saturday will tackle the runners up in the league race, the No. 2 Crane team, in an endeavor to place a decided crimp in their pennant aspirations. Jackel and Jamison, the battery in last Saturday's game against the Yosts for A. B. team will appear again tomorrow, being opposed by Carter, Hammer and Lucia.

For the lovers of a cool spot with shade trees lining the side lines Seaside Park is the ideal place tomorrow. Here another Industrial League contest, which means good and happy baseball, will be the stellar attraction. Here, the Bridgeport Brass team, under new management, will meet up with George Elsworth's ever victorious crew from the Main Street Crane plant. Here, "Kid" Mullins and Hurley will be George's battery, while Kellogg and Frank will essay for the Bussards.
